

1 Defendant The Vons Companies, Inc. ("Vons") opposes the motion for attorney fees
2 filed by plaintiff Chris Kohler ("Plaintiff") on the ground that the amounts claimed are 3 excessive and unreasonable. Vons accordingly asks the Court to award Plaintiff only the 4 reasonable and justifiable amount of $3,198.00 in attorney fees, litigation expenses, and costs,
5 rather than the far higher amount sought by Plaintiff.

6 This is a very simple, garden-variety ADA case. Plaintiff's attorney has filed at least
7 several hundred such ADA cases against retail businesses throughout California. There are no
8 time-consuming complexities, no novel legal issues. For example, except for the names of the 9 parties and store location, and for a single paragraph containing a few allegations specific to 10 this store, Plaintiff's complaint is word-for-word identical to the complaint filed by the same
11 plaintiff's attorney, Lynn Hubbard, in many other ADA cases. (As an example, compare the 12 complaint in this lawsuit, Exhibit 1 attached to this brief, with the complaint filed by the same
13 plaintiff and plaintiff's attorney in Kohler v. PETCO et al., Exhibit 2 to this brief.)

14 After filing the complaint in this lawsuit, Plaintiff did nothing other than accept Vons'
15 Rule 68 offer a few days after Vons filed its answer to the complaint. There was no written 16 discovery, no motion practice, no depositions, and no court appearances.

17 Additionally, Plaintiff in this case seeks attorney fees at an hourly rate that far exceeds
18 the hourly rate awarded to the same attorneys in very similar ADA cases by other district court
19 in California within the last year. Vons accordingly asks that any award in this case be made
20 at the hourly rates awarded in those cases, i.e., $250/hour for Lynn Hubbard, $175/hour for 21 Scottlynn Hubbard, and $90/hour for paralegals.

22 Finally, many of the "paralegal" time entries should not be allowed here, because the 23 work performed was mere clerical or secretarial work for which attorneys are not allowed to 24 recover. Such costs are part of the normal, non-recoverable overhead expenses of any legal 25 office.

I.

ALL CLAIMED TIME THAT IS EXCESSIVE, REDUNDANT, OR OTHERWISE UNNECESSARY SHOULD BE EXCLUDED.

A prevailing party in an ADA action can recover, under 42 U.S.C. section 12205, a “reasonable attorney’s fee, including litigation expenses and costs.” Obviously, the statutory limitation to “reasonable” fees and costs means that this Court should exclude everything that is unreasonable, and everything for which the Plaintiff has not met his burden of proving reasonableness. See Fischer v. SBPD, Inc., 214 F.3d 1115, 1121 (9th Cir. 2000) (applicant for award of attorney fees bears the burden of establishing entitlement and clearly documenting the hours expended and the hourly rates); Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 427, 427 (1983) (the Court must exercise its discretion to determine the “reasonableness” of the fees claimed by the prevailing party).

Courts have exercised this discretion and closely examined attorney fee award applications in ADA litigation. “The court should exclude hours that are ‘excessive, redundant, or otherwise unnecessary.’” White v. J.A. Sutherland, Inc. dba Taco Bell #2463, 2005 WL 1366487, at *4 (E.D. Cal., May 6, 2005), quoting Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. at 433.

There are two categories here that should be closely examined by the Court, and excessive claimed hours excluded. Those are the amount of attorney time claimed, and the time claimed for paralegal work that is really only unbillable clerical/secretarial work. Also, the Court should only award Plaintiff the same hourly rates awarded to the same attorneys in very similar cases within the past year, rather than the higher rates sought herein by Plaintiff.

A. The Claimed Attorney Time Should Be Reduced By At Least 7.4 Hours.

Plaintiff’s attorney Lynn Hubbard is, as he notes in his declaration filed herewith, an exceedingly experienced attorney in ADA “equal access” lawsuits, having litigated more than 500 such lawsuits in California, and devoting more than 95 percent of his law practice to such cases. (Hubbard Decl., ¶¶ 14, 15.)

An attorney with that amount of experience, filing a case such as this one that is very similar to more than 500 others that he has filed, and having to do nothing more than change a

1 few names in a stock complaint, file and serve the complaint, and accept a prompt offer of 2 judgment under Rule 68, does not reasonably require 17.55 hours of attorney time.

3 Among the excessive claimed entries are two separate entries by Lynn Hubbard, within 4 less than a week of one another, on January 3 and 7, 2008, of 3.0 hours each for inspecting the
5 property – which, in this case, constitutes a standard-sized Vons store and the parking area
6 adjacent thereto. At most, the Court should award fees for one of those two three-hour time
7 entries, and delete the other entry of 3.0 hours.

8 Another excessive entry is dated March 17, 2008, showing that Mr. Hubbard claims
9 1.6 hours on that date for preparing the bill of costs in this case – a bill that contains only two 10 cost items (the filing fee for the complaint, and the cost of service). An attorney acting 11 reasonably would have a paralegal prepare this very short, uncomplicated bill, and spend, at 12 most, 15 minutes of attorney time reviewing it. Accordingly, this entry should be reduced
13 from 1.6 hours to 0.25 hours of Mr. Hubbard's time.

14 Finally, the last entry, dated March 18, 2008, is also excessive and should be reduced.
15 On that date, Mr. Hubbard claims 4.35 hours for preparing the instant motion for attorney fees.
16 As the Court is aware, plaintiff's motion is less than three pages of text, plus a declaration
17 from Mr. Hubbard (most of which is standard and not prepared "from scratch" for this 18 particular lawsuit). A reasonable amount of attorney time for this task would be, at most, 2.0
19 hours. The Court should therefore award no more than 2.0 hours for this task, reduced from 20 the claimed 4.35 hours.

21 Two other entries for Lynn Hubbard should be stricken entirely: The January 8, 2008
22 entry, 0.3 hours for "letter to client re fee agreement", and 0.4 hours on January 11, 2008 for 23 "create client fee agreement." The client fee agreement is a clerical task, part of the normal
24 attorney office overhead (see discussion and authority below, in section C), and time spent on 25 that is not recoverable as reasonable attorney fees here.

26 Thus, overall, the Court should reduce the claimed time for Lynn Hubbard from 16.95
27 hours to 9.55 hours.

28

B. The Court Should Award $250 Per Hour for Lynn Hubbard's Time, $150 Per Hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, and $75 Per Hour for Paralegals, Consistent With Other Fee Awards in California to Mr. Hubbard's Firm Within the Past Year.

Plaintiff's motion seeks $350 per hour for Lynn Hubbard's time, $225 per hour for Scottlynn Hubbard's time, and $90 per hour for paralegal time.

The Court should reduce those rates to the reasonable rates awarded to Mr. Hubbard and his law firm by other district courts in California, including cases within the past twelve months, for their similar work in similar ADA litigation, and those rates are $250 per hour for Lynn Hubbard, $150 per hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, and $75 per hour for paralegals.

In determining the reasonableness of hourly rates, courts "look ... to the 'prevailing market rates in the relevant community.'" Eiden v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., 407 F. Supp. 2d 1165 (2005), quoting Blum v. Stenson, 465 U.S. 886, 895 (1984). Mr. Hubbard's firm, Disabled Advocacy Group APLC, have their office in the rural northern California community of Chico, and that is the relevant community for assessing their hourly rates.

These district courts in California, including two within the past year, have made the same assessment, for the same attorneys, in very similar ADA litigation, and concluded that the reasonable rates that should be awarded are $250 per hour for Lynn Hubbard, $150 per hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, and $75 per hour for paralegals: Chapman v. Pier I Imports, Inc., 2007 WL 2462084, *4 (E.D. Cal. Aug. 24, 2007) (awarding $250 per hour for Lynn Hubbard and $150 per hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, and $75 per hour for paralegals; rejecting Mr. Hubbard's requests for higher rates); Martinez v. G. Maroni Co., No. Civ. S-06-1399, 2007 WL 1302739, at *2 (E.D. Cal. May 2, 2007) (also awarding $250/hour to Lynn Hubbard, $150/hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, and $75/hour for paralegals); Martinez v. Thrifty Payless, Inc., No. 2:02-CV-0745, 2006 WL 279309, at *3 (E.D. Cal., Feb. 6, 2006) (same).

C. The Claimed Paralegal Time Should Be Reduced By 1.7 Hours.

Paralegals and legal assistants cannot charge for time incurred in performing "clerical" tasks, and all such claimed charges in Plaintiff's motion should be stricken. Similar claims by Mr. Hubbard and his firm have been rejected in the past. Loskot v. USA Gas Corp., 2004 U.S.

1 Dist. Lexis 29174 (E.D. Cal. Apr., 26, 2004). Other federal courts have held similarly:
 2 Secretarial salaries and benefits are "A part of the usual and ordinary expenses of an attorney
 3 in his practice [and] are not separately reimbursable, for these constitute his overhead or cost
 4 of doing business and are taken in to account in determining his hourly rate...." In re Pac.
 5 Exp., Inc., 56 B.R. 859, 865 (Bkrcty. E.D. Cal. 1985).

6 For these reasons, the following claimed entries of paralegal time should be deleted, as 7 being clerical/secretarial in nature: "Kaina" entries on January 7, 2008 (0.4 hours for "create
 8 client file"), January 18, 2008 (0.3 hours for "prepare process serving request form..."),
 9 February 12, 2008 (0.3 hours for "update file with defendant's attorney information..."),
 10 March 6, 2008 (0.3 hours for "review and update calendar..."). Additionally, the 0.4 hours
 11 billed by Kaina on March 13, 2008 should be disallowed, as it is clearly unreasonable for Mr.
 12 Hubbard's office to bill 0.4 hours for correspondence about a meet-and-confer at the property
 13 almost a month after such a meeting was rendered unnecessary by Plaintiff's February 18,
 14 2008 acceptance of the Rule 68 offer of judgment.

15 Thus, the Court should reduce the claimed paralegal time by 1.7 hours, i.e., from 6.2
 16 hours to 4.5 hours.

17 II.

18 CONCLUSION

19 For the reasons set forth herein, the Court should make the following reductions in 20 Plaintiff's claim for attorney fees, paralegal fees, and litigation expenses and costs:

- 21 (1) Reduce claimed time for Lynn Hubbard from 16.95 hours to 9.55 hours.
- 22 (2) Reduce claimed paralegal time from 6.2 hours to 4.5 hours.
- 23 (3) Reduce hourly rates to the reasonable, established amounts for Mr. Hubbard's
 24 firm of $250 per hour for Lynn Hubbard, $150 per hour for Scottlynn Hubbard, 25 and $75 per hour for paralegals.
- 26 (4) Additionally, litigation expenses and costs must be counted only once.
 27 Plaintiff submitted a bill of costs separately from his motion for attorney fees.
 28 Those costs cannot be awarded twice.

1 Applying those reductions, the Court should award Plaintiff no more than $3,198.00 in
 2 attorney fees, litigation expenses, and costs, as follows:

3 Lynn Hubbard: 9.55 hours at $250 per hour = $2,387.50

4 Scottlynn Hubbard: 0.6 hours at $150 per hour = $90.00

5 Paralegals: 4.5 hours at $75 per hour = $337.50

6 Litigation Expenses and Costs (if not separately awarded) = $383.00

8 FINAL TOTAL = $3,198.00

Kohler v. Vons
Plaintiff's Complaint

I. SUMMARY

1
2 1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Chris Kohler ("Kohler") for
3 discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land,
4 development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

5 Vons #2360 DIST #56
6 845 College Boulevard
7 Oceanside, CA 92057
8 (hereafter "the Store")

9 2. Kohler seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, attorney
10 fees and costs, against The Vons Companies, Inc. dba Vons #2360 (collectively
11 "Vons") pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, ( 42 U.S.C. §§
12 12101 et seq.), and related California statutes.

II. JURISDICTION

14 3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and
15 1343 for ADA claims.

16 4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
17 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated
18 on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

19 5. Kohler's claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

III. VENUE

21 6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction
22 of the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is 23 invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

IV. PARTIES

24
25 7. Vons owns, operates, or leases the Store, and consists of a person
26 (or persons), firm, or corporation.

27 8. Kohler was shot in the back in 1988, which left him paralyzed from 28 the waist down. Kohler requires the use of a wheelchair when traveling about in

Kohler v. Vons
Plaintiff's Complaint

1 public. Consequently, Kohler is "physically disabled," as defined by all
2 applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose
3 rights are protected by these laws.

4 V..FACTS

5 9. The Store is a sales or retail establishment, open to the public,
6 which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

7 10. Kohler visited the Store and encountered barriers (both physical and 8 intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—his ability to use and
9 enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility.
10 To the extent known by Kohler, the barriers at the Vons included, but are not
11 limited to, the following:

- 12 • There is no accessible path from the public transportation to the entrance
- 13 of the store;
- 14 • The tow away signage posted uses the term "handicapped;"
- 15 • The trash receptacle obstructs the path of travel to the entrance of the
- 16 store;
- 17 • The pottery counter does not have the required clear floor space;
- 18 • Of the six check-out stands provided, none are designated as being
- 19 accessible, nor have a sign stating that the checkstand(s) are to remain
- 20 open at all times for person with disabilities;
- 21 • The pay point machines are too high and out of the required reach range
- 22 limits;
- 23 • In the restroom, the toilet tissue dispenser protrudes into the clear
- 24 maneuvering space needed at the water closet;
- 25 • The paper towel dispenser interferes with the clear maneuvering space
- 26 needed at the water closet;
- 27 • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not properly wrapped; and,
- 28 • There is improper toe and knee clearance underneath the lavatory.

Kohler v. Vons
Plaintiff's Complaint

1 These barriers prevented Kohler from enjoying full and equal access.

2 11. Kohler was also deterred from visiting the Store because he knew
3 that the Store's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and
4 accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 5 himself). He continues to be deterred from visiting the Store because of the 6 future threats of injury created by these barriers.

7 12. Kohler also encountered barriers at the Store, which violate state
8 and federal law, but were unrelated to his disability. Nothing within this 9 Complaint, however, should be construed as an allegation that Kohler is seeking 10 to remove barriers unrelated to his disability.

11 13. Vons knew that these elements and areas of the Store were 12 inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to 13 the physically disabled. Moreover, Vons has the financial resources to remove 14 these barriers from the Store (without much difficulty or expense), and make the 15 facility accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however, Vons refuses to 16 either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to 17 excuse non-compliance.

18 14. At all relevant times, Vons has possessed and enjoyed sufficient 19 control and authority to modify the subject property to remove impediments to
20 wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act
21 Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Vons has not removed such 22 impediments and have not modified the subject property to conform to 23 accessibility standards. Vons has intentionally maintained the subject property
24 in its current condition and has intentionally refrained from altering the subject
25 property so that it complies with the accessibility standards.

Exh. 1, Pg. 06

1           Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

2           19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural
3 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
4 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term "readily
5 achievable" is defined as "easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
6 without much difficulty or expense." Id. § 12181(9).

7           20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not
8 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or
9 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically
10 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

11           21. Here, Kohler alleges that Vons can easily remove the architectural 12 barriers at the Store without much difficulty or expense, and that Vons violated
13 the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was readily achievable to 14 do so.

15           22. In the alternative, if it was not "readily achievable" for Vons to 16 remove the Store's barriers, then Vons violated the ADA by failing to make the 17 required services available through alternative methods, which are readily
18 achievable.

19           Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

20           23. On information and belief, the Store was designed or constructed (or 21 both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering access requirements
22 under Title III of the ADA.

23           24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for 24 first occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren't readily accessible to, and 25 usable by, individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do
26 so. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

1        25. Here, Vons violated the ADA by designing or constructing (or both)
2 the Store in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically disabled
3 public—including Kohler—when it was structurally practical to do so.<sup>3</sup>

4                    Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

5        26. On information and belief, the Store was modified after January 26,
6 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

7        27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects
8 (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with 9 disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering
10 an area that contains a facility's primary function also requires adding making 11 the paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that 12 area accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

13        28. Here, Vons altered the Store in a manner that violated the ADA and
14 was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Kohler—
15 to the maximum extent feasible.

16                    Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

17        29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies,
18 practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services,
19 facilities, or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity 20 can demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their 21 nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

22        30. Here, Vons violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable
23 modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Store, when these 24 modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the 25 nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

26
28 <sup>3</sup> Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action
as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

1 31. Kohler seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive
2 relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations. 42
3 U.S.C. § 12205.

4 32. Kohler also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory relief)
5 that Vons violated the ADA in order to pursue damages under California's 6 Unruh Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

7 VII. SECOND CLAIM

8 Disabled Persons Act

9 33. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
10 through 30 for this claim.

11 34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with 12 disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of 13 the streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public
14 places.

15 35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals
16 with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations,
17 facilities, telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places
18 to which the general public is invited.

19 36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's
20 rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

21 37. Here, Vons discriminated against the physically disabled public—
22 including Kohler—by denying them full and equal access to the Store. Vons
23 also violated Kohler's rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed upon or 24 violated (or both) Kohler's rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

25 38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Kohler seeks actual
26 damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one
27 thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available
28 under California Civil Code § 54.3.

Kohler v. Vons
Plaintiff's Complaint

1 39. He also seeks to enjoin Vons from violating the Disabled Persons
2 Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover reasonable
3 attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

4 VIII. THIRD CLAIM

5 Unruh Civil Rights Act

6 40. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
7 through 30 for this claim.

8 41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within 9 the jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations,
10 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of 11 every kind whatsoever.

12 42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business
13 establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in
14 this state because of the disability of the person.

15 43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by 16 reference) an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

17 44. Vons' aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically
18 disabled public—including Kohler—full and equal accommodations,
19 advantages, facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment
20 (because of their physical disability).

21 45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA)
22 denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Kohler by violating the 23 Unruh Act.

24 46. Kohler was damaged by Vons' wrongful conduct, and seeks
25 statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.

26 47. Kohler also seeks to enjoin Vons from violating the Unruh Act (and 27 ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under 28 California Civil Code § 52(a).

Kohler v. Vons
Plaintiff's Complaint

IX. FOURTH CLAIM

Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

48. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 13 for this claim.

49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the provisions of Government Code § 4450.

50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

51. Kohler alleges the Store is a public accommodation constructed, altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Store was not exempt under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

52. Vons' non-compliance with these requirements at the Store aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Kohler and other persons with physical disabilities. Accordingly, he seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to Health and Safety Code § 19953.

X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Kohler prays judgment against Vons for:

1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems proper.

2. Declaratory relief that Vons violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.

3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.

- 1 4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.<sup>4</sup>
- 2 5. Interest at the legal rate from the date of the filing of this action.

20 Defendants.

Case No. 07cv2125 W (AJB)

Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint

1 I. SUMMARY

2 1. This is a civil rights action by plaintiff Chris Kohler (“Kohler”) for
3 discrimination at the building, structure, facility, complex, property, land,
4 development, and/or surrounding business complex known as:

5 Petco #927
6 3875 Mission Avenue
7 Oceanside, CA 92058
8 (hereafter “the Store”)

9 2. Kohler seeks damages, injunctive and declaratory relief, and 10 attorney fees and costs against Petco Animal Supplies Stores, Inc. dba Petco #927
11 and Golden Eagle Management, LLC (collectively “Petco”) pursuant to the 12 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, ( 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et seq.), and 13 related California statutes.

14 II. JURISDICTION

15 3. This Court has original jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and
16 1343 for ADA claims.

17 4. Supplemental jurisdiction for claims brought under parallel
18 California law—arising from the same nucleus of operative facts—is predicated
19 on 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

20 5. Kohler’s claims are authorized by 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202.

21 III. VENUE

22 6. All actions complained of herein take place within the jurisdiction of 23 the United States District Court, Southern District of California, and venue is 24 invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), (c).

25 IV. PARTIES

26 7. Petco owns, operates, or leases the Store, and consists of a person
27 (or persons), firm, or corporation.

1           8. Kohler was shot in the back in 1988, which left him paralyzed from
2 the waist down. He requires the use of a wheelchair when traveling about in
3 public. Consequently, Kohler is “physically disabled,” as defined by all
4 applicable California and United States laws, and a member of the public whose
5 rights are protected by these laws.

6                                           V. FACTS

7           9. The Store is a sales or retail establishment, open to the public,
8 which is intended for nonresidential use and whose operation affects commerce.

9           10. Kohler visited the Store and encountered barriers (both physical and 10 intangible) that interfered with—if not outright denied—his ability to use and
11 enjoy the goods, services, privileges, and accommodations offered at the facility.
12 To the extent known by Kohler, the barriers at the Petco included, but are not
13 limited to, the following:

- 14           • The disabled parking space has an excessive slope;
- 15           • The access aisle adjacent to the disabled parking space has an excessive 16 slope;
- 17           • None of the accessible spaces are designated as van accessible;
- 18           • The International Symbol of Accessibility (“ISA”) painted in the disabled 19 parking spaces are not the correct size;
- 20           • There is no ISA posted at the entrance doors;
- 21           • The entrance doors require too much force to operate;
- 22           • The counter is mounted too high for a person in a wheelchair to access;
- 23           • Inside the Store, there is no signage directing one to the restrooms;
- 24           • The accessible stall door in the restroom is not self closing;
- 25           • The toilet tissue dispenser protrudes into the clear floor space needed at 26 the water closet;
- 27           • The toilet tissue dispenser has sharp edges;
- 28

- 1       • On the interior of the stall door, there is no handle mounted below the
- 2       lock;
- 3       • The coat hook on the interior of the stall door is mounted too high;
- 4       • The pipes underneath the lavatory are not properly wrapped;
- 5       • There is insufficient knee clearance underneath the lavatory; and,
- 6       • The lavatory controls require twisting and pinching.

7 These barriers prevented Kohler from enjoying full and equal access.

8       11. Kohler was also deterred from visiting the Store because he knew
9 that the Store's goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, and
10 accommodations were unavailable to physically disabled patrons (such as 11 himself). He continues to be deterred from visiting the Store because of the future
12 threats of injury created by these barriers.

13       12. Kohler encountered barriers at the Store, which violate state and 14 federal law, but were unrelated to his disability. Nothing within this Complaint, 15 however, should be construed as an allegation that Kohler is seeking to remove 16 barriers unrelated to his disability.

17       13. Petco knew that these elements and areas of the Store were 18 inaccessible, violate state and federal law, and interfere with (or deny) access to 19 the physically disabled. Moreover, Petco has the financial resources to remove 20 these barriers from the Store (without much difficulty or expense), and make the 21 facility accessible to the physically disabled. To date, however, Petco refuses to 22 either remove those barriers or seek an unreasonable hardship exemption to
23 excuse non-compliance.

24       14. At all relevant times, Petco has possessed and enjoyed sufficient
25 control and authority to modify the subject property to remove impediments to
26 wheelchair access and to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act
27 Accessibility Guidelines and Title 24 regulations. Petco has not removed such 28 impediments and has not modified the subject property to conform to

1 accessibility standards. Petco has intentionally maintained the subject property in
2 its current condition and has intentionally refrained from altering the subject
3 property so that it complies with the accessibility standards.

4 15. Kohler further alleges that the (continued) presence of barriers at the 5 facility is so obvious as to establish Petco's discriminatory intent.<sup>1</sup> On 6 information and belief, Kohler avers that evidence of this discriminatory intent
7 includes Petco's refusal to adhere to relevant building standards; disregard for the 8 building plans and permits issued for the facility; conscientious decision to the 9 architectural layout (as it currently exists) at the facility; decision not to remove 10 barriers from the facility; and allowance that Petco's property continues to exist in 11 its non-compliant state. Kohler further alleges, on information and belief, that 12 Petco are not in the midst of a remodel, and that the barriers present at the facility
13 are not isolated (or temporary) interruptions in access due to maintenance or 14 repairs.<sup>2</sup>

15 VI. FIRST CLAIM

16 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990

17 Denial of "Full and Equal" Enjoyment and Use

18 16. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
19 through 15 for this claim.

20 17. Title III of the ADA holds as a "general rule" that no individual shall 21 be discriminated against on the basis of disability in the full and equal enjoyment 22 (or use) of goods, services, facilities, privileges, and accommodations offered by 23 any person who owns, operates, or leases a place of public accommodation. 42
24 U.S.C. § 12182(a).

26
27
28 <sup>1</sup> E.g., Gunther v. Lin, 144 Cal.App.4th 223, fn. 6

<sup>2</sup> Id.; 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(b)

Kohler v. Petco Animal Supplies Stores, Inc., et al.
Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint

1 18. Petco discriminated against Kohler by denying “full and equal
2 enjoyment” and use of the goods, services, facilities, privileges or 3 accommodations of the Store during each visit and each incident of deterrence.

4 Failure to Remove Architectural Barriers in an Existing Facility

5 19. The ADA specifically prohibits failing to remove architectural
6 barriers, which are structural in nature, in existing facilities where such removal
7 is readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). The term “readily
8 achievable” is defined as “easily accomplishable and able to be carried out
9 without much difficulty or expense.” Id. § 12181(9).

10 20. When an entity can demonstrate that removal of a barrier is not
11 readily achievable, a failure to make goods, services, facilities, or
12 accommodations available through alternative methods is also specifically
13 prohibited if these methods are readily achievable. Id. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(v).

14 21. Here, Kohler alleges that Petco can easily remove the architectural 15 barriers at the Store without much difficulty or expense, and that Petco violated
16 the ADA by failing to remove those barriers, when it was readily achievable to do 17 so.

18 22. In the alternative, if it was not “readily achievable” for Petco to 19 remove the Store’s barriers, then Petco violated the ADA by failing to make the 20 required services available through alternative methods, which are readily
21 achievable.

22 Failure to Design and Construct an Accessible Facility

23 23. On information and belief, the Store was designed or constructed (or 24 both) after January 26, 1992—independently triggering access requirements
25 under Title III of the ADA.

26 24. The ADA also prohibits designing and constructing facilities for first 27 occupancy after January 26, 1993, that aren’t readily accessible to, and usable by,
28

1 individuals with disabilities when it was structurally practicable to do so. 42
2 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(1).

3 25. Here, Petco violated the ADA by designing or constructing (or both)
4 the Store in a manner that was not readily accessible to the physically disabled
5 public—including Kohler—when it was structurally practical to do so.<sup>3</sup>

6 Failure to Make an Altered Facility Accessible

7 26. On information and belief, the Store was modified after January 26,
8 1992, independently triggering access requirements under the ADA.

9 27. The ADA also requires that facilities altered in a manner that affects
10 (or could affect) its usability must be made readily accessible to individuals with 11 disabilities to the maximum extent feasible. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2). Altering an 12 area that contains a facility's primary function also requires adding making the 13 paths of travel, bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving that area
14 accessible to the maximum extent feasible. Id.

15 28. Here, Petco altered the Store in a manner that violated the ADA and
16 was not readily accessible to the physically disabled public—including Kohler—
17 to the maximum extent feasible.

18 Failure to Modify Existing Policies and Procedures

19 29. The ADA also requires reasonable modifications in policies,
20 practices, or procedures, when necessary to afford such goods, services, facilities,
21 or accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the entity can 22 demonstrate that making such modifications would fundamentally alter their
23 nature. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).

24 30. Here, Petco violated the ADA by failing to make reasonable
25 modifications in policies, practices, or procedures at the Store, when these 26

27
28 <sup>3</sup> Nothing within this Complaint should be construed as an allegation that plaintiff is bringing this action
as a private attorney general under either state or federal statutes.

Kohler v. Petco Animal Supplies Stores, Inc., et al.

07cv2125 W (AJB)

Plaintiff's First Amended Complaint

1 modifications were necessary to afford (and would not fundamentally alter the
2 nature of) these goods, services, facilities, or accommodations.

3 31. Kohler seeks all relief available under the ADA (i.e., injunctive
4 relief, attorney fees, costs, legal expense) for these aforementioned violations. 42
5 U.S.C. § 12205.

6 32. Kohler also seeks a finding from this Court (i.e., declaratory relief)
7 that Petco violated the ADA in order to pursue damages under California's Unruh
8 Civil Rights Act or Disabled Persons Act.

9 VII. SECOND CLAIM

10 Disabled Persons Act

11 33. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
12 through 30 for this claim.

13 34. California Civil Code § 54 states, in part, that: Individuals with 14 disabilities have the same right as the general public to the full and free use of the 15 streets, sidewalks, walkways, public buildings and facilities, and other public
16 places.

17 35. California Civil Code § 54.1 also states, in part, that: Individuals
18 with disabilities shall be entitled to full and equal access to accommodations,
19 facilities, telephone facilities, places of public accommodation, and other places
20 to which the general public is invited.

21 36. Both sections specifically incorporate (by reference) an individual's
22 rights under the ADA. See Civil Code §§ 54(c) and 54.1(d).

23 37. Here, Petco discriminated against the physically disabled public—
24 including Kohler—by denying them full and equal access to the Store. Petco also 25 violated Kohler's rights under the ADA, and, therefore, infringed upon or 26 violated (or both) Kohler's rights under the Disabled Persons Act.

27 38. For each offense of the Disabled Persons Act, Kohler seeks actual
28 damages (both general and special damages), statutory minimum damages of one

1 thousand dollars ($1,000), declaratory relief, and any other remedy available
2 under California Civil Code § 54.3.

3 39. He also seeks to enjoin Petco from violating the Disabled Persons
4 Act (and ADA) under California Civil Code § 55, and to recover reasonable
5 attorneys' fees and incurred under California Civil Code §§ 54.3 and 55.

6 VIII. THIRD CLAIM

7 Unruh Civil Rights Act

8 40. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
9 through 30 for this claim.

10 41. California Civil Code § 51 states, in part, that: All persons within the 11 jurisdiction of this state are entitled to the full and equal accommodations,
12 advantages, facilities, privileges, or services in all business establishments of 13 every kind whatsoever.

14 42. California Civil Code § 51.5 also states, in part, that: No business
15 establishment of any kind whatsoever shall discriminate against any person in 16 this state because of the disability of the person.

17 43. California Civil Code § 51(f) specifically incorporates (by reference)
18 an individual's rights under the ADA into the Unruh Act.

19 44. Petco's aforementioned acts and omissions denied the physically
20 disabled public—including Kohler—full and equal accommodations, advantages, 21 facilities, privileges and services in a business establishment (because of their 22 physical disability).

23 45. These acts and omissions (including the ones that violate the ADA)
24 denied, aided or incited a denial, or discriminated against Kohler by violating the 25 Unruh Act.

26 46. Kohler was damaged by Petco's wrongful conduct, and seeks 27 statutory minimum damages of four thousand dollars ($4,000) for each offense.
28

1 47. Kohler also seeks to enjoin Petco from violating the Unruh Act (and
2 ADA), and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred under California
3 Civil Code § 52(a).

4 IX. FOURTH CLAIM

5 Denial of Full and Equal Access to Public Facilities

6 48. Kohler incorporates the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
7 through 13 for this claim.

8 49. Health and Safety Code § 19955(a) states, in part, that: California 9 public accommodations or facilities (built with private funds) shall adhere to the 10 provisions of Government Code § 4450.

11 50. Health and Safety Code § 19959 states, in part, that: Every existing 12 (non-exempt) public accommodation constructed prior to July 1, 1970, which is 13 altered or structurally repaired, is required to comply with this chapter.

14 51. Kohler alleges the Store is a public accommodation constructed,
15 altered, or repaired in a manner that violates Part 5.5 of the Health and Safety
16 Code or Government Code § 4450 (or both), and that the Store was not exempt
17 under Health and Safety Code § 19956.

18 52. Petco's non-compliance with these requirements at the Store
19 aggrieved (or potentially aggrieved) Kohler and other persons with physical 20 disabilities. Accordingly, he seeks injunctive relief and attorney fees pursuant to 21 Health and Safety Code § 19953.

22 X. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

23 WHEREFORE, Kohler prays judgment against Petco for:

- 24 1. Injunctive relief, preventive relief, or any other relief the Court deems 25 proper.
- 26 2. Declaratory relief that Petco violated the ADA for the purposes of Unruh
27 Act or Disabled Persons Act damages.

1 3. Statutory minimum damages under either sections 52(a) or 54.3(a) of the 2 California Civil Code (but not both) according to proof.

3 4. Attorneys' fees, litigation expenses, and costs of suit.<sup>4</sup>
